Jet Trip to Paris First Prize in Singer Contest

Prizes awaiting the winners of the Singer Young Stylemaker contest include a jet trip to Paris to visit the fashion houses of famous couturiers, and exciting air trips to famed cities in the United States, totaling more than $130,000 in awards. Climax of the contest will be the crowning of three Queens of Sewing at a gala fashion show in New York in late autumn. Girls aged 10 through 21 are eligible to try for the valuable prizes, including fabulous trips, the newest Singer Sewing Machines and big cash awards. The contest opened April 18, and registrations will be accepted through Aug. 13. Three age groups will compete separately. The "Teen division is open to girls aged 10 through 13; the Teen division is open to girls 14 through 17; and the Misses and Mrs. division is open to girls 18 through 21. To be eligible contestants must take eight sewing lessons, and make a dress at a Singer Center. Each shop will select a winner in the three categories. Winning garments will be sent for judging at 36 Singer area headquarters. Again, winners in the three divisions will be selected. New York has been chosen for the next round of judging. At this level, the estimated 50,000 entries have been narrowed to 108—three from each of the 36 headquarters. Of this group, 15 will be selected to come to New York for final judging. These 15 girls will be invited to come to New York, with their mothers or a family-approved companion, for an all-expense stay at one of New York's top hotels. After a whirlwind of theaters, sightseeing, and parties, they will participate in a fashion show before an audience of fashion and sewing experts. The grand-prize winner in each age group will be announced at this showing. All winners receive generous cash awards; the three top winners receive exciting trips, in addition to cash. Aug. 27 marks the deadline for completing the dresses. Entry blanks and complete rules may be obtained at Singer Sewing centers.
